Renewed Assurances of the French Emperor's Intention of Withdrawing his Troops from Mexico

In further answer to the recent resolutions of Congress requesting information concerning the employment of European troops in Mexico, the President transmitted the following dispatch from Mr. Bigelow to Mr. Seward:

LEGATION OF THE UNITED STATES,
PARIS, June 4, 1866.

SIR:—I waited upon His Excellency the Minister of Foreign Affairs on Saturday last in pursuance of a previous appointment to confer with him upon the subject matter of your instructions No. 459, marked "Confidential." As he had already been apprised of the contents of that dispatch through the French Minister residing at Washington, I was spared the necessity of restating them. He said that the Imperial Government proclaimed its intention to retire from Mexico, because it suited its convenience and interests to retire, and for no other reason. When, therefore, it announced formally, not merely to the United States, but to all the world, that the army would be withdrawn from Mexico within a specified time, he thought it should be deemed sufficient. The Government made its declaration in good faith and meant to keep it. It means to withdraw its army within the time prescribed, and it does not intend to take one or two hundred in the first detachment and one or two hundred more in the second, leaving the great body of them to the last, though it had not deemed it necessary to specify with minuteness details of this kind, which depend upon hygienic and climacteric considerations, of which it was the best and the only competent judge. This, His Excellency said, he wished I would say to our Government.

I asked His Excellency if I had ever intimated to him whether, in writing or orally, any suspicion of the Emperor's intention to withdraw his army from Mexico in unequal portions. He replied that I had not. I then asked him if any other person authorized to speak in the name of my Government had done so. He said no. But he had read imputations of that kind in one of our papers. I replied in substance that the press was a law unto itself, and that we had better not accept it as a law unto us, and as he asked to communicate to my Government a formal answer to what sounded like an accusation of insincerity and bad faith on the part of the Emperor, I wanted his authority for stating that no such accusation had reached him through any official channel. He replied that he had only read it in a newspaper. I then went on to say that the purpose of your instruction, as I understood it, was simply to obtain an explanation, which was sure to be required of you, of the shipment in France of large bodies of troops to Mexico after the purpose to withdraw her whole army had been officially proclaimed. To this his Excellency replied that since seeing me he had gotten from his colleagues of the Marine and War Departments information to the purport that no troops belonging to the Corps Expeditionnaire had been sent to Mexico this year, unless for the sake of partly replacing soldiers missing, but at any rate, without augmentation of the number of standing troops; that the shipment of troops referred to in the public prints and in your despatch was most likely that made in the transport Rhone about the beginning of the year; that this Rhone touched at Martinique, but not at St. Thomas, as was stated; that she carried 916 and not 1,200 soldiers; that they belonged to the Foreign Legion and not to the Expeditionary Corps; that they consisted of troops which had been waiting transportation a long time in France and Algeria to join their regiments; that no troops had been enrolled for the Foreign Legion since the Emperor proclaimed his purpose to withdraw his flag from Mexico, and that no more for what he knew, were intended to be enrolled. In regard to the shipment of troops from Austria, he said that that was an affair entirely between that Government and the Mexican, with which France had nothing to do; that since I had spoken to him on the subject he had verified his own conviction by a reference to the Ministers of War and Marine, and had ascertained that no engagements of any sort had been entered into by either for the enrollment or transportation of troops from Austria to Mexico. He went on further to say that it was the intention of Government to withdraw the army entirely from Mexico within the time specified in his despatch to you at the very latest,—sooner if climate and other controlling considerations permitted, and it was not its intention to replace them with other troops from any quarter. At the conclusion of a long conversation, of which I have given the important results, I expressed my satisfaction with his Excellency's explanation, and the pleasure I should have in communicating it to my Government. This question has been submitted to M. Drouyn deLhuys and the foregoing version of the results of our conversation has been approved by him.

I am, Sir, with very great respect, your obedient servant, JOHN BIGELOW.
Hon. WILLIAM H. SEWARD, Department of State, Washington, D. C.

DOG SUICIDE.—An English newspaper tells the following extraordinary story, which, if it is true, proves that a dog may, by culture, become in certain degrees as unreasoning and absurd as some men who cowardly throw away their lives to get rid of some petty annoyance:

"A fine dog belonging to Mr. George Hone, of Frendsbury, near Rochester, committed a deliberate act of suicide by drowning in the Medway, at Upnor. The dog had been suspected of approaching hydrophobia, and was accordingly shunned and kept as much as possible from the house. This treatment appeared to give him much annoyance, and for some days was observed to be moody and morose, but still without any appearance of becoming rabid. On Thursday morning he was seen to leave the house and proceed to an intimate acquaintance of his master's at Upnor, on reaching the residence of whom he set up a piteous cry on finding he could not obtain admittance. After waiting at the house some little time he was seen to go to the river close by, and then deliberately walk down the bank, and after turning around and giving a kind of farewell howl, he walked into the stream, where he kept his head under water until he rolled over dead. This extraordinary act of suicide was witnessed by several persons. The manner of his death proved pretty clearly that the animal was not suffering from hydrophobia."

DEMOCRATIC LOVE FOR THE PRESIDENT.—Many men suffer themselves to be deceived into the support of the Democratic ticket at the late election in this State, believing the protestations of love for the President made by Copperhead stump orators. Copperhead journals were also profuse in their praise of the "second Jackson." Since the election, these same papers give the lie to their former professions by publishing articles like the following, which we find in an Oregon exchange, copied from the N. Y. Freeman's Journal:

"Now being an honest man, we will say bluntly, that for Andrew Johnson personally, we care not, as respects this world, one Continental damn! We have no respect for him and never expect to have any. Were he to be declared President for life of the late United States, we would refuse to shake hands with him, except he could in some marvellous manner purge himself of complicity in the murder of Mrs. Surratt, Wirtz, and various other innocent people."

Copperheads who hurrahed so lustily for Old Andy before the election are now at a loss for language to express their contempt for him; and those who suffered their conservatism to blind them to the true character of Democracy must feel that they were sold dirt cheap.—Albany Journal.

The Philadelphia Inquirer has this telegram from Washington:

The Johnson Club here have abandoned all hope of defeating General Geary in Pennsylvania and freely concede he will be elected by a large majority. They have no longer any hope of getting "Clymer" out of the field, who is personally very obnoxious to the President.

ANOTHER POLITICAL MOVE.—The telegraph gives the hatching of another Johnson Dodittle movement. The "Administration" may throw its popularity into the Philadelphia Union Convention. Daddy Welles is said to be for it. Little Raymond is bobbing around. They might as well go into the Copperhead party through the Philadelphia door as any other. Any port in a storm.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH

SAN FRANCISCO, July 23.—The Eastern line is down beyond La... No Eastern report received.

A private telegram dated New York, July 21st, with intelligence from London to the 12th inst., contains words of peace on the continent. In the absence of particulars and also of any information of the New York opinions of the probability of terms of peace being actually arranged as reflected by the gold market, you must judge of the amount of reliance to be placed on the news.

Steamer Continental, which left Guaymas July 17th and Mazatlan 18th, arrived here to-day noon. She brings $7,625 in treasure. Left in port at Guaymas French men of war Victoria, Rhin, Venus and Lucifer.

Since the disbanding of a number of the local militia companies under the operations of the new law many are re-organizing under the old name, and purpose keeping up their organization and to purchase arms and equipments at their own expense.

Judge Sawyer to-day rendered a decision in the matter of J. C. Sparks for a writ of mandamus, deciding the question in regard to the registry law, which bears of more than usual importance at the present time. He decides that such party making application for enrollment in the great register, and making oath that he is the person therein described, shall be entitled to an enrollment. His presentation of the certificate is presumptive evidence of his being the party therein described, and his oath to that effect is ample prima facie proof, and if the board of registration have a reasonable doubt of truthfulness of his testimony they should examine on oath other persons touching his right to be enrolled. Satisfactory proof of evidence to identify must be ascertained by the rules of evidence as administered in courts of justice, and under such rules the oath of the applicant is prima facie proof of the truthfulness of his statement.

Thomas Burns, a laboring man, while under the influence of liquor, attempted to ride a horse out Howard street last Saturday evening. When between Eighth and Ninth streets he ran into a passing vehicle and was knocked down, receiving injuries from which he died at the County Hospital yesterday afternoon.

The news from Bogota is important and indicates a general revolution throughout the Republic. An armed mob had paraded the streets of Bogota shouting "Down with the Congress," "Death to Mor... still," "Long live Mosquera," "The President for the next ten years." The mob afterward entered the Senate Chamber and by threats forced the Congress to sanction the veto of the President in reference to certain acts passed by that body.

In Costa Rica the scarlet fever still raged but with less severity than previously.

The States of Central America, with the exception of Bogota, are all tranquil.

Valparaiso dates are to June 7th and Callao dates to June 20th. The news is unimportant from South America.

The Markets

Flour market is dull beyond a little going forward on China account. There is no demand for export. Superfine half sacks $4 50 to $4 75@$5; qr. sacks, $5@5 25; Extra, half sacks, $5 25@$5 50, qr. sacks, $5 50@$5 75.

Wheat sales—Good New, at $1 60 per 100lbs. The receipts to-day are unusually large, and in the absence of any particular activity in the market prices drag on grain. A shipper in this city has received a telegram dated New York, July 21st, containing the following dispatch:

"London, July 12.—Wheat falling. Harvest prospects favorable."

Barley—Sales good feed, new, 80c per 100 lbs.

Oats—Prices nominally same.

Potatoes—Good Mission are quotable at 60@70 and bags 60@62½ ₽ 100 lbs.

Money Market.

Private telegrams received here quote gold in New York on Friday last at 150, and on Saturday at 150½. Legal tenders are quoted in this market by leading brokers at 70½ buying and 71½ selling.

There is very little doing in mining stocks this morning. From the morning board of Saturday Yellow Jacket advanced $25, Savage $5, and Ophir $2 and $2 50. Imperial shows a decline. Bullion $3 50; Confidence, Chollar Potosi and Belcher each $1.

Shipping.

Arrived 21st—British bark Panama, 77 days from Manilla via Yokohama 45 days; bark Legal Tender, 10 days from Port Madison. 23d—Ship Asia, Capt. Cowen, 10 days from Utsalady.

Sailed 22d.—Bark Torrent, Puget Sound; Hamburg bark Theone, Sydney; Russian schooner Milton Badger, Honolulu. 23d—Ship Prima Donna; Prussian bark Matilda, Hong Kong.

LABOR REGULATION.—The Montgomery Advertiser states that a "meeting of freedmen was held in Cherokee county, Alabama, where they bound themselves together, under a penalty of fifty lashes, to be laid on the naked back, not to contract to work for any white man during the present harvest for less than $2 per day."

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE STATE

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JULY 25, 1866.

Lincoln Living and Lincoln Dead.

The class of journals whose political gospel is "my policy" have not yet intermitted none of their efforts to show that Johnson is treading in the footsteps of Lincoln. The copperhead wing of the new party has been so far "converted," as Seward expresses it, as to profess the utmost admiration for "my policy," mainly because as they assure us, Lincoln originated it. The "bread and butter" brigade which constitutes the other and smaller wing of the new party, admires it because it is the dispenser of post-offices, collectorships and general plunder. It is not easy to decide which wing displays the more zeal in its support or which appeals the oftener to the record of President Lincoln in justification of the course of President Johnson. If the obsequiousness of Johnson's "trencher friends" is disgusting, the audacity of the copperheads is astonishing. For the party which heaped obloquy upon President Lincoln while living, and which by its daily denunciations of him educated an assassin to take his life, to turn about now and claim that what was his policy is now theirs, is comparable to nothing except the conduct of Lucifer in contending for the bones of the old patriarch. The New York World in a late article endeavors to show that the notion of Mr Lincoln to bring about the restoration of some of the revolted States, and to have them elect members of Congress while the rebellion was yet in progress, was the beginning of the policy that has been pursued by his successor. If this be true, why did the entire Democratic press denounce Mr Lincoln's plan for the restoration of Louisiana, Arkansas and Tennessee? Why did the World teem with the most violent attacks upon these early attempts to bring those States back into their proper relations with the Union? Why was Mr. Lincoln's endeavor to have the rebel States partly represented in Congress, opposed by the entire Democratic party? Why was the "rotten borough system," as the copperheads called this effort to bring about gradual restoration, so violently assailed? Not a Democrat East or West sanctioned, at its inception, the policy of Lincoln, which they now pretend was inherited and has been followed by Johnson. The copperheads are therefore in this unhandsome dilemma: Either they must acknowledge that Lincoln did not originate "my policy," or that (conceding he did originate it) they have completely reversed their own opinions in relation to its wisdom, rightfulness and propriety. If Johnson is pursuing Lincoln's policy, we should be glad to be informed why the entire Democratic party opposed it at the beginning, but pronounce for it now. Here is another piece of inconsistency to be reconciled with the "immutable principles of the time-honored party." In Democratic estimation, Lincoln living was merely a coarse jester, a low buffoon, an idiotic driveller, Lincoln dead is a man whose wisdom devised a statesmanlike policy which no alteration can improve, and which is therefore worthy to stand forever.

VERY MODEST DEMAND.—The following is a telegram lately sent from the Canadian Capital:

> In the Canadian Parliament, yesterday (June 22d) Mr Galt moved for the indemnification of the Government, by the United States, for the expenses incurred during the recent Fenian troubles. Several members of the Government party advocated the move, when Mr. Chambers, of Brookville, obtained the floor and spoke against it. He said that Canada could not support troops to resist the United States. A thousand Fenians was a different matter from 35,000,000 of Americans. He also called for an investigation of the conduct of the commanders of the Provincial troops during the trouble, and denounced the management of the volunteers as a blunder. Mr. Chambers was continually interrupted and hissed; the uproar becoming so great at times as to drown his remarks. He was replied to by Mr. D'Arcy McGee, and the motion of Mr. Galt was adopted.

Very brilliant financiering is this. Brilliant because audacious. "Moved for the indemnification of the (Canadian) Government by the United States for the expenses incurred during the recent Fenian troubles. Motion carried." The Canucks are evidently resolute. No remonstrances of our Government will be heeded. The United States has nothing to do now but to come down with the dust. Of course we will pay, for has'nt the Canadian Parliament decided that we are to do it? What is the strength of our 35,000,000 of people compared with the puissance of the country whose armies were but lately routed by 800 Fenians? Very plain case that we have that bill to pay, and we may as well discharge the obligation without grumbling. Its doubly due the Canucks after their very considerate treatment of us ever since 1861.

HALF AND HALF.—The vote in the Senate in favor of the resolution declaring Tennessee restored to its proper practical relations with the States of the Union, was almost unanimous—only two Copperheads and two Impracticables voting nay. As against the Union majority in Congress, this has been very nearly the association of opposing votes, during all this session. The Democratic professional "howlers" have bawled forth constant volumes of denunciations upon the radicals, yet when the majority propose any sound measure of restoration we almost invariably find the Copperheads and the Impracticables—both about equally devoid of practical sense—voting together. Copperheads quote Sumner, Phillips and others, who never belonged to the Union party, and insist on making the Union party responsible for their utterances, and yet the Copperheads and the Impracticables we have mentioned, vote together on questions of reconstruction oftener than against each other.

FROM WALLA WALLA.

The Statesman of the 20th contains the following:

HORRIBLE AFFAIR—A MAN FOUND HANGING ON A TREE.—On Saturday last, the authorities were notified that the body of a man had been found hanging on a tree by the side of the Walla Walla river, about five miles from town. This was the first report. On further inquiry, a still more horrible state of affairs was disclosed. It seems that about a month since the deceased attempted to outrage the person of a young girl whose parents live not very far distant from the scene of hanging. As we are informed, he failed to accomplish his purpose and no effort was made to bring him to trial on the serious charge to which he had laid himself liable. Subsequently he was employed by Jesse Drumheller, Esq., as a farm hand, and whilst at work for this gentleman a party consisting of four or five men came and took him away, stating at the time that he was "charged with attempting to commit a rape." After his removal, nothing further was seen or known of the man until his remains were found as above described. From all the circumstances, it would seem that the party who took the man away from Drumheller's were the men who hung him. After the hanging it seems that his executioners never returned, and the body was allowed to hang until it rotted off at the neck. O. P. Lacy, Justice of the Peace, who held the inquest, states that he found the body on the ground and the head and neck still hanging to the tree. A more ghastly sight can scarcely be imagined. The remains were identified by the clothing as those of the man who was taken away from Mr. Drumheller's. No further facts of importance were elicited. We have been unable to ascertain the man's name, and this notwithstanding he was known to a number of residents of the county and accompanied Capt. Mullan on one of his expeditions. The following is the verdict of the coroner's jury: "That the deceased came to his death by hanging by the neck by persons to the jury unknown; that he was a native of Ireland, aged about 35 years." The body was buried where found, the condition of the remains being such as to render their removal impossible.

HARVESTING—GRAIN PROSPECTS.

Harvesting is now in progress generally, all over the valley. Considerable wheat, oats and barley has already been cut down and probably by the latter part of next week the greater part of the small grain crops will be harvested. We are told that the wheat crops of a few farms is badly affected with smut. This however is so far as we can learn, is only the case where brine was neglected to vitriol their wheat when seeding. Taking the wheat crop as a whole it is undoubtedly as good as that of any former year, while the aggregate yield will be much greater, there being more land in wheat this year than usual. The grain is well filled and plump, and the straw is bright and perfectly free from rust. Wheat, we understand, has never any year since the settlement of the valley, been in the slightest manner touched with rust. * * * * The oats and barley crops, like the wheat, are unusually good and the yield will be immense, compared to the limited number of acres sown. Laborers are scarce in the valley, and as a consequence wages are rather high—ranging from $2 to $4 a day for field hands.

CAMPMEETING—REVIVALS.

The campmeeting lately held on the Touchet at Stitson's Grove, under the auspices of the M. E. Church, is pronounced by many who attended, a great success. Rev. Deardorff officiated as principal for the occasion, and was assisted by the following named local ministers: Revs. Joseph Paul, John Reese, J. W. McGhee and Castle. Twenty five new members were added to the church during the revival.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 24.—The Eastern line is still out of order [illegible] to Julesburg.

The [illegible] mail says the reported loss of the steamer of war [illegible] St. [illegible] was at Guaymas at last [illegible].

Advices from San [illegible] July [illegible] and Mazatlan July 14th. [illegible] of Mexico reports [illegible] the Imperial forces [illegible] in the western coast [illegible] changed [illegible] Mazatlan, July 10th, states that the [illegible] the country was on [illegible] of little importance. The official paper of the Empire speaks very disparagingly of him. The Emperor has [illegible] the reorganization of the army corps. The draft will commence in the fall of July next. The Juarists had decided to hang the leading Imperialists who elevate their station whenever they can get at them. The Liberals are already preparing to dispose of the renegade Mexicans when the French troops leave. A series of important attacks on [illegible] withdrawals with [illegible] are reported.

The Union County Committee met last evening and after having approved the credentials of the delegates to the County Convention adopted the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the President of this Committee be and is hereby [illegible] to call together the delegates elected to the Union County Convention on Wednesday evening, July 25th, at 8 o'clock.

Resolved, That said Convention sit with open doors.

A German named Bolon arrived in this city last night from Sacramento and took lodgings at the What Cheer House, and this morning was found dead. He is supposed to have committed suicide.

Judge Dwinelle to-day denied the application of Mary Stewart for a divorce from her husband, Geo. Stewart. The application was based on the alleged ground of desertion, but Judge Dwinelle decided that no sufficient ground for divorce was shown.

Mrs. Margaret Denny has been arrested charged with an assault to murder Maria DeWolfe. The case will come up for investigation on Thursday, when the whole facts which led to the shooting will probably transpire. There are several stories afloat concerning the cause of the difficulty, but they are so conflicting that it is impossible to know which is correct.

The case of Theodore C. Sanborn, charged with obtaining money under false pretenses, was to have been tried in the County Court to-day, but owing to the non-appearance of P. J. Higgins, the prosecuting witness, the case was postponed until Friday next. An attachment was issued for Higgins' arrest.

The Democratic County Convention met again last evening and owing to the state of the political atmosphere threatening a storm, sat with closed doors and refused admission to all others than members of the Convention. It is understood they had a stormy time of it. Strong efforts were made to rescind the nomination of McElroy for Chief of Police and a bitter wrangle is reported to have ensued, in which crimination and recrimination were freely indulged in. The matter was finally brought to a vote, when the nomination was sustained, as is reported, by a bare majority. The Cobb and McElroy faction had quite an exciting war of words, the latter announcing their intention of throwing Cobb overboard in case McElroy's nomination was rescinded. Charges were made against McElroy by his opponents, when his friends proposed that he be allowed to come before the Convention and explain matters. This course was objected to as he had previously refused to address them when requested. Finally, after considerable wrangling, a vote was taken, which resulted in an invitation being extended, by a vote of 27 to 15 requesting McElroy to come before them and explain matters. McElroy was then sent for and shortly appeared, and it is presumed that his explanation of the matter (whatever it was) was found satisfactory, for the Convention refused to rescind his nomination by a vote of 27 to 11. The Convention finally adjourned to meet again on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

The news by the Continental from Mexico confirms the capture of Matamoras by the Liberals. Gen. Mejia had arrived at Vera Cruz. Commercial news unimportant. The port towns being cut off from the interior under military rule, trade was emphatically dull and beyond hope of revival until the withdrawal of the French troops.

Flour market inactive, with little or no demand for export. Wheat $1 60 ℔ 100 lbs. Barley same, inquiry for near for export; sale of feed at 80c ℔ 100 lbs. Potatoes, Bay's, are quotable at 82½c, and Mission at 60c@70c ℔ 100 lbs.

No later dispatches than those given yesterday and up to present writing, 2 A. M., the wires are still silent.

Brokers are buying legal tenders at 71 and selling at 71½. Mining stocks continue depressed from the morning board. Yesterday Ophir declined $7 50, Belcher $5 and Confidence $1. Gould & Curry shows an advance of $10 from the last sale, Yellow Jacket is improving in view of approaching dividend indicating an advance of $20 since yesterday. Imperial has advanced $5 from the same board; Bullion and Overman each $3 50, and Chollar $1.

No arrivals or departures of any importance.

CONTESTED ELECTION IN POLK COUNTY.

Decision of Judge Boise.

We republish from the Statesman of Monday the decision of Judge Boise on the contested election cases of Polk county, together with the appended letter from Hon. J. L. Collins:

C. P. Cooke vs. W. C. Whitson—Election contest for office of County Judge of Polk county.

J. H. Lewis vs. Wm. Howe—Election contest for the office of County Treasurer of Polk county.

G. T. Walker vs. J. W. Downer—Election contest for the office of Assessor of Polk county.

T. H. Lucas vs. G. H. Fliers—Election contest for the office of County Commissioner of Polk county.

Asa Shreve vs. Joseph Liggett—Election contest for the office of Clerk of Polk county.

J. A. Applegate vs. Thomas Butler—Election contest for the office of School Superintendent of Polk county.

The foregoing cases were submitted to me at chambers, at Dallas, in Polk county, on the 2d day of July, and days following to the 7th of July, and the Court considered all the cases together, so far as the evidence was applicable to each of them.

A large number of votes were challenged as illegal, and evidence submitted thereto.

And the Court finds—

1st. That the following persons voted out of the precincts where they resided, to-wit: John Vernon, P. R. Price, R. C. Remmington, D. Gordon, Wm. Comegys, J. Hendricks, J. I. Thompson, Thomas Greene, T. W. Kibbey, Anson Kimsey, H. Christian, P. Hildebrand, M. W. Steeth, D. W. Collins, H. Bust, jr., H. Bust, sr., J. Bayley, James Morris, H. B. Hickman, Wm. Bell, H. Barney, J. R. Lebo, A. D. Babcock, Lewis Bozley, Wm. Burden, Sumner Carr, Josse Newbill, Wm. Newbill, J. Frederick, J. W. Downer, George Comegys, H. Comegys, E. B. Hill, M. Haight, L. C. Perry, R. J. Hendricks, John Damewood, R. H. Tyson, P. M. Bell, Dan. Chandler, Thomas Toterbrow, J. H. Roberts, Joshua Brown, A. J. Toterbrow and H. Hazgood. Of these, A. D. Babcock, Lewis Bozley, Wm. Burden, Sumner Carr, Josse Newbill and Wm. Newbill, voted in Douglas precinct, and lived within Polk county and adjoining said precinct, but in no organized precinct. The Court finds that, under the State Constitution, Art. 2, Sec. 17, that actual residence in the precinct is necessary to constitute a voter for county officers.

W. F. Moiro came to this State as a soldier, was discharged in this State, and next day re-enlisted in this State, and remained all the time under military orders, but was not mustered in under re-inlistment for several months; belonged to a California company; after enlistment voted as a California soldier; says that when he re-enlisted it was his intention to reside in Oregon. Held that, notwithstanding it may have been his intention, at time of re-inlistment, to remain and reside in Oregon, his having voted as a citizen of California will be taken as evidence that he was still a citizen of that State. His vote is rejected.

W. C. Whittall. The case of this voter is the same as that of Moiro, just stated, and his vote is rejected for the same reason.

W. L. Smith. This voter, in the spring of 1864, went to Idaho Territory, to the mines, was then living at his father's house in Polk county; remained away until after the 4th of December last, and returned; voted in Idaho Territory for territorial and county officers. The question of domicil is not a question of law, but of fact. If a person leaves his residence with the intention of returning, and continues in that intention, and does nothing inconsistent with that intention, the law presumes that his place of residence is not changed by his absence for a temporary purpose, but his acts must be consistent with the retention of his residence at his former domicil; and the exercise of the elective franchise, or holding a political office in the new location, is inconsistent with the continuation of the former domicil. Mr. Justice Nelson (in the case of Shelton vs. Taffin et al., 6 Howard U. S. Reports, p. 185) says on this subject: "On a change of domicil from one State to another, citizenship may depend upon the intention of the individual. But this intention may be shown more satisfactorily by acts than declarations. An exercise of the right of suffrage is conclusive on the subject." This high authority would seem to settle the question in this case, as Smith acknowledges that he did vote in Idaho. His vote will be rejected.

The case of J. B. Smith is precisely like the last mentioned case, and his vote will be rejected.

H. Crone. In this case, H. Crone being himself a witness, states that he is not a native born citizen, says he made a declaration to become a citizen in Georgia, before the war, that he never had any certificate of such oath, and does not know the form of the oath which he took. There was some evidence showing that he had said he was not a citizen and he had not the right to vote. Taking his own testimony as true, and it is deemed by me insufficient to establish the fact that he ever took the oath prescribed by act of Congress. Being shown to be a foreigner, the burden of proof is on him to show his citizenship, and in this case the proof is not sufficient, provided it could in any case be shown by parole when there appears to be record of the fact in existence. His vote is rejected.

Frederick Miller. In this case Miller testifies that he is a foreigner, that he was naturalized, left his papers with some man whose name he does not recollect or place of residence, don't know the court where he got his naturalization papers, or the place where the court was holden, don't know the contents of the naturalization papers which he had. Evidence shows that Miller has often stated that he never had any papers and asked where he should apply to get them. Evidence very unsatisfactory, vote rejected.

The foregoing are all the votes which the Court after the examination of the testimony, has determined to reject.

The number of illegal votes cast for each candidate in the contest, is twenty six, with the exception of Wm. Howe, for whom there were twenty five illegal votes cast. This statement [the schedule statement not copied.—Ed. Statesman.] and finding by the Court will not change the result, as ascertained by the poll books, except in the case of J. H. Lewis vs. Wm. Howe, which will give Howe one more majority than appears on the poll books.

It is therefore ordered and adjudged by the Court that W. C. Whitson is duly elected to the office of County Judge of Polk county, J. I. Thompson to the office of County Clerk of said county, Joseph Legitt to the office of Sheriff of said county. Thos. Butler to the office of Superintendent of Common Schools of said county. J. W. Downer to the office of Assessor of said county, and George H. Fliers to the office of County Commissioner of said county.

R. P. BOISE, Judge.

The foregoing is the finding and order of the Court. The following is the opinion of the Court on certain questions involved in the controversy, which was filed with the foregoing:

It was insisted on the trial of this case that the vote of Douglas precinct should be thrown out, for the reason that one of the judges of election was not sworn. I think there is nothing in this objection, as it appears that the votes were given in good faith by the voters, and returned in due form to the office of the County Clerk.

An objection is also made to one vote appearing on the poll book of Bethel precinct. It appears that one Chandler voted for State officers at the precinct, but not for county officers; that next after him one Cawood voted for both State and county officers, and that one of the clerks of election carried out the vote of Cawood for county officers opposite to the name of Chandler, making it appear that Chandler voted for county officers, and that Cawood did not vote for county officers. This was a mistake made by the clerk of election. The poll book was returned to the office of the county clerk in this manner, and after being so returned the clerk of election who kept the poll book, with the consent of the county clerk, corrected the poll book, by striking out the marks after Chandler's name and marking them opposite Cawood's name. Chandler had no right to vote for county officers, being a non resident of the county.

Considering these facts as found, the court finds that the vote of Cawood ought to be counted, and the poll book should now stand as corrected by the clerk of election. It is not now necessary for the purposes of this case to decide whether the clerk of election had authority to correct the poll book after it had been returned to the county clerk. If the poll book had remained uncorrected, as it was returned, I have no doubt but this court in the trial of this case, would be bound to count the vote of Cawood, when these facts were made to appear.

In the case of H. Bailey, whose vote was challenged on the ground that he was a foreigner. It appears from his testimony that he came to the United States when eleven years of age, that his father was naturalized before he became of the age of twenty-one years, and that his father for many years exercised the right of suffrage. He produced no record of his father's naturalization, but the statement made by him was not objected to as not being the best evidence, or contradicted. His vote is not rejected.

In the case of M. Apple. It appears from his statement that he is of foreign birth, says he declared on oath his intention to become a citizen of the United States, several years since, in the city of New York, in a court where foreigners went to be naturalized, that a certificate was issued to him by that court, in due form, that he lost his certificate in Stockton, California, by fire. He has now no certificate. This evidence was not objected to as not being the best evidence. His vote is not rejected.

In the case of N. Provost. His vote is challenged on the ground that he is of half Indian blood. Several witnesses testified that Provost's mother was an Indian, judging from appearance. Three witnesses testified that they knew her, and understood her to be part French and part Indian. One other witness testified that he understood her to have some French blood in her. Taking all the testimony together, the Court does not think the evidence establishes the allegation.

In the case of Samuel King, whose vote is challenged on the ground that he was convicted of a felony. King was convicted and sentenced to one year in the Penitentiary of this State. Before his sentence had expired, to wit, on the 24th of October, 1864, he was pardoned by the Governor. In the pardon is this language—"And hereby restore to him his liberty, and reinstate him in the enjoyment of all the rights and privileges by law enjoyed by other citizens of this State." This is a general pardon, and the question is, does it restore him to the right to vote? I think it does. A pardon by the President of the United States to a person convicted of forgery restores his competency as a witness. (Hoffman vs. Coster, 2 Whent. 453; Jones vs. Hans 1 Salkeld 160.) In Massachusetts a full pardon restores a convict to his competency as a witness. (Perkins vs Stevens 24 Pick. 277.) A pardon is to be construed favorably to the convict, and not only releases him from punishment, but, in the eye of the law, from the guilt of the crime—(Hunt, ex parte, 5 Eng. 284)—and it is difficult to see a distinction between restoration to competency as a witness and the right to vote.

There were some other cases submitted, on the subject of residence, where the evidence left the actual domicil of the voter uncertain. In all such cases, the Court could come to no other conclusion than that, in the case of doubtful domicil, the party voting has the right to choose the place where his last fixed abode was, and this depends so much on the intention of the party that it is difficult in most cases to learn from others his real intentions. In all the cases not especially noticed I have prepared an abstract of the testimony, which is herewith filed and referred to, to illustrate my finding in these cases, and cannot well extend this opinion to greater length, and as I think they involve no principle of importance.

R. P. BOISE, Judge.

REMARKS BY MR. COLLINS.

There is one case not noticed in the opinion of the Court which I desire to notice briefly, for the reason that the question involved in it has been the subject of discussion among some of the members of the bar. James Campbell, a minor, residing with his father, in Monmouth precinct, enlisted in the military service. After he enlisted his father removed into Buena Vista precinct. Campbell reached his majority while in the service and prior to the election. He voted in Monmouth precinct. Challenged on the ground of voting out of his precinct. It was argued that his father's house, being his home when he enlisted, he being under age, the removal of his father into Buena Vista precinct also removed his domicil to that precinct. His vote was not rejected.

At a special session of the County Court to-day, the precinct lines of the county were thoroughly revised and more definitely established.

The special election for Senator, on the 20th of August, prox., will be conducted fully up to the heat of the season. Yours truly,

July 19, 1866. J. L. COLLINS.

TESTIMONIAL OF RESPECT.—At a meeting of the First Hebrew Benevolent Society of Portland, Oregon, the following resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, We have learned with sorrow of the decease of our worthy member Mr. Leon Cohn at San Francisco, California, therefore

Resolved, That while humbly bowing to the will of Divine Providence, we deeply deplore the loss of one of the founders and most worthy members [illegible] a true friend, a genial disposition and a kind heart, he merited and received the respect of all that knew him, no less from his upright course in all his transactions in life as also from his benevolent character and readiness at all times to relieve the necessities of others. Charitable to every sense of the word, he became [illegible] a valuable member of this community and occupied a high standing in the estimation of his fellow men.

Resolved, That we sincerely condole with the bereaved family and relatives of the deceased and tender them our heartfelt consolations.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon our Journal, that a copy thereof be transmitted to the family of the deceased and be published in the daily papers of this city and the Hebrew Observer of San Francisco.

PACIFIC COAST DIRECTORY.—Mr S D Whittaker is now in this city as agent for the Pacific Coast Business Directory, for 1866, to be shortly published by Henry G Langley, Esq, of San Francisco. This work will contain the name, business and address of all merchants, manufacturers and professional men in the States of Oregon, California and Nevada, and the Territories of Washington, Utah, Arizona, Idaho and Montana, and the Colonies of Vancouver and British Columbia. Mr Langley is one of the ablest statisticians in the United States, and the writer, who was for a considerable time with him, can positively say that anything coming from his supervision will be accurate, full and reliable. Mr Whittaker will call on our business men immediately, when we trust they will aid him in all reasonable efforts to obtain information, and give the work a liberal support.

PREMIUMS FOR STATE FAIR.—We have received a list of the premiums to be awarded at the next State Fair, to be held in Salem, Oct 16, 17, 18 and 19 next. The list is published in pamphlet form and includes cattle, horses, sheep, swine and poultry, farming implements, grains and seeds, domestic manufactures, natural history, mining products, arts, home work, fruits, flowers, equestrianism, music, essays, and miscellaneous articles. We shall probably in some future number publish the full lists with their various classifications, together with the rules and regulations governing the Society.

MOUNT HOOD.—Photographic views of F A Butman's magnificent painting of Mount Hood were taken yesterday by Messrs. Ellsworth & Cardwell. They were made at the instance of Messrs. Shanahan & Dufrene, at whose place of business, corner of First and Morrison streets, this beautiful work of art has been on exhibition for some weeks. The firm have received orders to ship it to New York, and it will leave here by the next steamer for San Francisco. It is a pity to lose such a work, but our loss will be somewhat lessened by knowing that views of it can be had for a very small outlay.

MEDICAL.—In another column will be seen the card of Dr J B Gittner, late of the U S Army. Dr G is a graduate of Pennsylvania Medical College, two years assistant Ward Physician in the Pennsylvania Hospital, Surgeon in the army during the late rebellion—his last year's service as Surgeon of the United States General Hospital. He has opened an office in Carter's Block, entrance 5 Washington street, and will give to the sick and afflicted the benefit of his long experience as a physician and surgeon.

PUBLIC BATH.—Yesterday morning a gentleman drove his horse into the water at the ferry landing to give him a drink. The horse, supposing he was to have a free bath, plunged boldly into the "deep, dark rolling river," carrying vehicle, man and all with him. By good management the gentleman succeeded in turning the animal's head toward the shore, but not until he was well "dowsed." This is said to be the latest horse-tile incident.

CIRCUIT COURT.—SHATTUCK J.—E Hoffman vs H E Meeker, Auditor of City of Portland. Petition for mandamus, to compel City Auditor to issue license to plaintiff. Petition denied, suit dismissed. Fleischner & Co vs Geo P Thomas. Judgment by default for want of an answer for $3 049 gold coin. Brelsford & Parry vs heirs of D H Lownsdale. Decree in favor of plaintiff to correct title to east lot 4, block 18. Court adjourned sine die.

FREIGHT BY THE ORIZABA.—The following freight was sent down by the Orizaba Monday night: 7 horses, 555 gunnies bacon, 2 000 staves, 50 empty barrels, 102 bales wool, 84½ barrels apples, 7 barrels apples, 34 boxes eggs, 2 barrels butter, 35½ barrels butter, 95½ barrels salmon, 10 [illegible] [illegible] cases tobacco, 15 cases merchandise, 5 bales merchandise, 3 trunks merchandise, 2 kegs merchandise.

FREIGHT FROM THE WILLAMETTE VALLEY.—The following articles of freight were brought down by the Alert yesterday: 1 600 sacks flour, 6 bales cloths from Oregon City Mills, 100 sacks bacon, 31 hides and a large quantity of miscellaneous articles.

VICTORIA SHIPMENTS.—By the Fidelitar Monday afternoon, was shipped the following freight: Wheat 225 sacks, butter 6½ barrels, bran 22 sacks, [illegible] 15 cases, red wood boards, 1 000 feet bacon, 7 gunnies eggs, 12 dozen.

RECORDER'S COURT.—Not much business transacted in this Court yesterday. [illegible] for assault and battery [illegible] Mrs Mack, drunk and disorderly, two days [illegible]

COMPOUNDED.—It is reported here that the great controversy about the [illegible] [illegible] has been compromised [illegible] work will be resumed immediately.

HEAVY CASTINGS.—Several [illegible] have just been cast at the Oregon Iron Works for the use of the Oregon Iron Co's Rolling Work. They weigh in the aggregate about thirty tons.

NO STEAMER.—[illegible] neither steamer from San Francisco [illegible] telegraphed. One or both will probably arrive to-day.

TREASURE.—The amount of treasure brought down from the upper Columbia by Wells, Fargo & Co last night was $70 000.

UP-RIVER BUSINESS.—The O. S. N. Co. forwarded to the upper country from this city [illegible] forty tons of freight yesterday morning.

FROM BIG BEND

The Walla Walla Statesman says: A gentleman just down from Big Bend, reports that five hundred men at work in the mines, many of them taking out large amounts. A good portion of the travel to Big Bend followed the Victoria route, but all the supplies have been taken in by way of the Columbia, which for all practical purposes must remain the main avenue of communication with this rich mining district. On her last trip up the steamer Forty-Nine broke her propeller and was detained much beyond her usual time. At latest dates she had not returned to her landing at Little Dalles. Business at Colville was flourishing and the crops in the Valley promise to double the production of any former year.

The Statesman remarks that [illegible] are evidently passing the right [illegible] —as are leaving Oregon because it is too wet [illegible] leaving California because it is too dry.

A correspondent at Needy, Clackamas county, informs us that the [illegible] in the [illegible] of this State are [illegible] instead of being imported as formerly. It takes two years to grow the [illegible] and then [illegible] dry them fit for use. The climate is well adapted to their growth. A Mr Bartell at Needy is engaged in raising them. We have no information as to the kind [illegible] adapted to them or the treatment required.

A telegram from Albany [illegible] says: A son of Mr Jordan was drowned in the mouth of the Calapooia this noon. His body was recovered. Great preparation was made to receive the Linn county volunteers. The boat did not arrive until 6 P M, when the company were escorted to the court house amid much enthusiasm, where a sumptuous repast awaited them with speeches and cheers of welcome. It was pleasant to greet our old Lion soldiers home again.

The skeleton of a white man was found near [illegible] miles in Jackson county a few days since. The body had evidently been buried at three feet deep in [illegible] or doubled up [illegible] It was brought to light by the washing away of a little bank. The jaw bone was broken in two places indicating a violent death. About three years since a man in that neighborhood disappeared, and it was mysteriously and it is supposed now that he was murdered and buried to avoid detection, and that the remains found may be his.

A letter from a valued correspondent at Harney Basin contains the following: Depredations have been committed with impunity in this county for the past three years by the Malheur tribe of lawless savages. They occupy a section of country containing thousands of acres of good agricultural land, and an abundance of heavy timber on the borders of the valley and mountain sides. Grass grows there with a luxuriance not equalled in any other valley in the upper country. The fact that the Indians winter their stock there simply by grazing proves that the climate is milder than that of Powder river valley. With the strong probabilities that good placer diggings might be developed there were it safe to prospect, it is not strange that miners and agriculturists should look in that direction with wishful eyes, and trust in their hearts that this (Capt. [illegible]) company [illegible] should clean them out [illegible]

A Mormon Basin letter of a late date says: The way the miners have been giving out [illegible] [illegible] Yesterday a nugget was found in Saxe & [illegible] claims weighing 19 ounces. Had such nuggets been found in Blackfoot a stampede would have been the result. As they are found in Webfoot they are hardly worth mentioning. New diggings were discovered a short time since in a southerly direction from this basin, distant about four miles. Pay has been found in five parallel gulches. The gold is concentrated within a narrow channel. The diggings are from one to three feet deep, paying from the surface down. In eastern gulch the only one having a rocker head of water they are making from ten to twenty dollars to the hand. It is somewhat questionable whether a full supply of water can be had there next spring. Water is so scarce there now that prospectors are compelled to pack their dirt a quarter of a mile to pan out.

The absurd claims of the Hudson's Bay and Puget Sound Agricultural Companies against the United States are to be ventilated very soon by testimony to be taken here on the part of our Government. Three gentlemen of experienced judgment—Hon. Jesse Applegate, Maj. J S Rhinearson and J C Carson, Esq.—were dispatched to Colville a few days ago by Hon W C Johns[on] to examine that post and to report their opinion here as to its value to the Hudson's Bay Company. It will be remembered that the Company claims for this post the insignificant sum of $60,000 in gold. The gentlemen above named go as a board of experts—one of them being a farmer, another a surveyor and the third a builder, and when they report we may expect to learn what [illegible] will be to rely on. Mr Johnson is now in this city, and will proceed at once to summon witnesses and to take testimony on behalf of the Government. That grape-vine and pig stye at Vancouver, which the Company claim among their late valuable possessions there, will no doubt be inquired about, and their value definitely settled.

The Statesman publishes R. Williams' account of a late visit to the Indian school at Siletz Reservation. He says: The whole school, consisting of twelve or thirteen orphan Indian boys and girls, were put through several recitations. The visitors were perfectly astonished at the proficiency of these children of the forest. They could read, write, spell, and recite all the usual studies of white children of their age as readily and correctly as we generally witness in any school. After they had gone through their various recitations, Mr Simpson and Mr Williams made appropriate speeches to them, which greatly encouraged them. They range from 8 to 16 years of age, are all orphans, picked up from various tribes, the Indian parents refusing to let their own children attend school—and they deserve and should receive the encouragement of every one. Five of the boys named Jerry Lane, Geo Pease, Abraham Lincoln, Charley Gray, and John Black wrote their names down in good plain English and sent them to this paper.

FROM IDAHO

We clip the following from the Idaho World of the 14th:

FROM ALTURAS—THE LEONORA LEDGE

Alturas prospects have brightened much of late. The remarkable wealth of the newly discovered ledge—the Leonora—is attracting general attention. We were shown last Saturday by Mr. Johnson, one of the owners and discoverers, several pounds of the rock from this ledge taken out by himself. The specimens can be better described as sheets of gold with a little quartz holding them together. They were taken out of the ledge at the depth of twenty eight feet. The portion of the ledge at the surface which contained these sheets of gold was not wider than a butcher knife. It has widened as the shaft has deepened. It is now about two inches wide. The quartz is well defined and will pay outside of the gold sheet which runs through one side of the ledge. The owners estimate the value of the rock thrown out in a few hours one day last week, at fully ten thousand dollars. The ledge is in the Yuba District about [illegible] the Atlanta. It has caused a great excitement among the quartz men of the district and explorations have been located all over the country. Should the ledge hold its own it will revolutionize that country and furnish it with new life. There is no doubt of the mineral wealth of Alturas. Owyhee has taken the lead during the past two years, being favored by fortune, by stirring active men and by location. Alturas is bound, however, to develop its wealth, and when the time comes, in which it will be known as a true value, Alturas will take a high place among the great mineral countries of the world.

AN ESCAPE AND RE-ARREST

Gus Ismandale, who is serving out his time in the Territorial prison for the burning of his brother, made his escape from the jail last week, but was soon after captured and returned to his old quarters. He went over to Centerville and entered a store to purchase some blankets, when George Thatcher and some friends on the watch for him, took him under arrest.

TIME ON THE CHICO ROAD

Capt. Mullan came through from Chico to Idaho City in three and a half days. This is quick time, and he says it can be lessened still more. The stage line will soon be in order. The mail contract has been let, and horses, stages, &c., are on the road. Capt. Mullan is President of the Stage Company and of the fast freight line, and is using all of his well known energy in perfecting matters.

THE WATER DRYING UP

The water in all of the ditches about Idaho City is rapidly drying up. A week or two will show most of the owners the bottom of their ditches.

The following items are from the Avalanche of the 14th:

The citizens along the Jordan are pursuing their daily avocations in security. Colonel Coppinger and a detachment of sixty mounted infantry are camped just west of the Mill. They patrol the streets every night and guard the town from sudden attack. In addition, there are two hundred well-equipped citizens doing splendid service here among the Indians. All things considered, our persons and property are more than commonly secure.

MINING MATTERS

Messrs. Moore & Fogus cleaned up $17,500 during the past week. A portion of the week was spent in fixing up and repairing of the batteries in the Morning Star mill. Business is proceeding as usual.

Colonel Larrabee showed us a very rich specimen of the Virginia City ledge, Flint District. It showed [illegible] silver to the naked eye [illegible] [illegible] new lot—perfectly splendid. Day [illegible] at present this ledge is better than even [illegible] expected.

The agent of the New York and Arizona Company, Mr McAlpine, has [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] engaged in sinking shafts. He has selected a mill site in Long Gulch, and will probably build a mill this year. He represents a wealthy company, and he thinks the prospects encouraging and will give our camp a big boost.

A new ledge was discovered last week on Florida Mountain, just west of Ruby. The rock [illegible] [illegible] is being assayed.

Nearly all the Mexican boys who have been mining on the Jordan below Ruby and in the vicinity of Booneville, have sold out to Chinamen.

S T—1860—X

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try the celebrated

PLANTATION BITTERS,

Which are now recommended by the highest medical authorities and warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure, and must supersede all other tonics where a healthy gentle stimulant is required.

They purify, strengthen and invigorate.
They create a healthy appetite.
They are an antidote to change of water and diet.
They overcome effects of dissipation and late hours.
They strengthen the system and enliven the mind.
They prevent miasmatic and intermittent fevers.
They purify the breath and acidity of the stomach.
They cure Dyspepsia and Constipation.
They cure Diarrhea, Cholera and Cholera Morbus.
They cure Liver Complaint and Nervous Headache.
They make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya bark, wintergreen, sassafras, roots and herbs, all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix rum. For particulars see circulars and testimonials around each bottle.

Beware of impostors. Examine every bottle. See that it has our private U S Stamp unmutilated over the cork, with plantation scene, and our signature on a fine steel plate side label. See that our bottle is not refilled with spurious and deleterious stuff. Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters by the gallon or in bulk, is an impostor. Any person imitating this bottle, or selling any other material therein, whether called Plantation Bitters or not, is a criminal under the U S Law, and will be so prosecuted by us. We already have our eye on several parties refilling our bottles, &c., who will succeed in getting themselves into close quarters. The demand for Drake's Plantation Bitters from ladies, clergymen, merchants, &c., is incredible. The simple trial of a bottle is the evidence we present of their worth and superiority. They are sold by all respectable druggists, grocers, physicians, hotels, saloons, steamboats and country stores.

The following words from Macmillan's Magazine are attributed to Miss Muloch

When all the world is young, lad,
And all the trees are green;
And every goose a swan, lad,
And every lass a queen;
Then hey for boot and horse, lad,
And round the world away;
Young blood must have its course, lad,
And every dog his day.

When all the world is old, lad,
And all the trees are brown;
And all the sport is stale, lad,
And all the wheels run down;
Creep home, and take your place there,
The spent and maimed among:
God grant you find one face there
You loved when you were young.

General Scott's Peculiarities

The first time I saw General Scott after the beginning of the war was on a Sunday morning in August, 1861—the second or third Sunday after the first battle of Bull Run, I believe. He was in those days a regular attendant upon the Episcopal Church, rarely missing a morning service even when he was hardly able to attend the office during the week. Indeed, there was a story current here about that time to the effect that some one had gently ventured to remonstrate with him for exposing himself to the needless fatigue of going to church when he had such important work on hand. The General responded in such a way that his adviser was led to observe that the country needed all his powers. "How dare you say that, sir,—how dare you!" broke out the old soldier, "what is man without God?" Whether this story be true or not is more than I can say—I only know I heard it from several sources during that summer and fall. I do know, however, that I have reason for believing it, as you shall see.

As I was going to say, he was a regular attendant at St. John's Episcopal Church—more commonly called then Dr. Pine's Church—and strangers went there to see General Scott just as they went to Dr. Gurley's to see Mr. Lincoln. A knot of perhaps twenty persons stood about on the morning in question, evidently awaiting the arrival of the General. Presently his well known low bodied carriage drove up, and his grand figure and stern face soon appeared. He walked with some difficulty up the steps, and paused an instant before entering the church. I arrived at that moment, and was passing in at the door when I heard one of the young men standing near say, "Well, we have seen him—come, let's go." The General must have heard every word, for the young man evidently spoke louder than he supposed. Quick as thought he turned upon him and exclaimed, "Young man, go in and say your prayers to God, who made the old soldier." He accompanied his words with a commanding motion of his hand, and there was in his eye and firm set lips such decisiveness of meaning that the young man passed into the church without even a glance at his companions.

That General Scott was of hasty and irascible temper in those latter years no one knew better than himself. That he was as ready to recall as to utter an unjust rebuke is not, perhaps, as well known to the public as it should be. I was witness, accidentally, to an incident illustrative alike of his impatient spirit and real gentlemanhood. It occurred while he was yet commander in chief, though I cannot now fix the exact time. His office was on Seventeenth street, opposite the War Department. His carriage stood at the door one afternoon as I passed, and discovering at the instant that he was coming out for a ride, I paused to see him. Kind enough at heart, and thoughtful of his troops when in service, he permitted no undue familiarity on the part of his soldiers, and required proper observance on all occasions of his rank and position. The regulars knew this well enough, and were not likely to offend in this regard. His peculiarities were very little known, however, to the volunteers. As he came out of the door of the building in which his head quarters were at this time, an orderly stepped up with, as it appeared afterwards, a letter from one of the bureaus of the War Department, which he had been directed to deliver to General Scott at once—of course to his Adjutant General or Chief of Staff. The willing but not well learned volunteer interpreted his order literally, however, and carelessly giving the salute, began: "O General, here's a paper I want you to look at before you——." The haughty veteran of nearly four score seemed dumbfounded for just one or two seconds, and then, straightening to his full hight, and raising his cane with a full sweep of the arm—I think he had a cane—he exclaimed with a weighty voice, "Clear out, sir—clear out!" The General passed to his carriage and was driven off. The letter was taken charge of by the orderly on duty at the office, and the other slowly walked on. The carriage was driven no more than twenty or thirty rods before it turned about, and the driver called to the unfortunate orderly. He of course met it with hat in hand and fear in every quivering muscle. He was beckoned to the door, and the General asked his name and regiment—as he told two or three of us immediately afterward. He gave both, and the General answered, "Well, sir, report to your colonel that you were guilty of gross disrespect to General Scott as an officer, and that General Scott was guilty of gross disrespect to you as a man. General Scott begs your pardon. Go to your duty, sir."

One of the last occasions on which I saw the General was at a Saturday afternoon instrumental concert in the White House grounds by the Marine Band. It was quite the custom of Mr. Lincoln to appear for half an hour or so on the southern portico of the Executive Mansion during these concerts. Happening to be there on this afternoon, with some Illinois friends of the President, I was included in the invitation to accompany him to the portico. We had been out there a quarter of an hour, perhaps, when one of the servants came to say that General Scott was at the door. The President went immediately to see him, and directly returned with the Lieutenant General in full uniform, leaning on his arm. It was a sight worth something to see. The crowd in front of the house saw it, was hushed in reverence a moment, and then broke out into a hearty clapping of hands. The General stepped to the front and raised his chapeau in acknowledgement. At this instance, the Band struck up "Hail to the Chief," while the people continued their plaudits. "You've got a good many young generals, Mr. President," said he turning to Mr. Lincoln, "but they don't forget the old General yet, do they?"—with a motion toward the people, and a decided emphasis on "don't," as if he had turned the question over and over in his mind. "We could spare a hundred of them better than we could him," answered Mr. Lincoln, as he supported him to a chair. "I thank you, Mr. President—I thank you," said the General in conclusion. Were there tears in his eyes? At least there were in the eyes of several of the persons who stood near.—Cor. Boston Advertiser.

A Combination.—It is recommended by the Statesman that there be a grand combination party formed to whip the Radicals. Everybody and his wife's grandmother is invited, and no excuses received. "What we need," says he, "is a candidate of the people, regardless of old party names, to overthrow Missouri Radicalism." The advice is superfluous and altogether needless. The Conservative rebel, bushwhacker, copperhead, would-be Democrats, pro-slaveryite, and all the fag ends of creation, have been, and are combined, against Missouri Radicalism.

The reason they have failed is not the want of combination, but the want of political truth, honesty, and a good cause.

Let them ally themselves to these grand instruments of success, and victory is sure, for Radicalism wages no war against these.—Hannibal Courier.

Commutation Money.—During the late war, the amount paid into the United States Treasury from the several States, as commutation money, was $26,366,316, of which Pennsylvania paid $9,614,300; New York, 5,485,709; Ohio $1,978,857; Massachusetts $1,610,100; Maryland $1,141,900; Wisconsin $1,517,600; Delaware $416,100; and the District of Columbia, $96,900. The lowest payment was from Illinois, only $15,000. The total amount was disposed of as follows: Distribution on account of enrollment, draft, substitutes &c., $16,976,211. Balance in United States Treasury, $9,390,105.

Hard Hit.—Mr. Barnum is credited with a good thing apropos of the Senatorial election in Connecticut. After the vote in the House was announced, says the Bridgeport Standard, and seven Union votes had been cast against the caucus nominee, a Copperhead acquaintance went up to Mr. Barnum and said: "Well, we are raking out your party. We have got out seven members to-day." "Yes," responded the great showman, "the same number that were raked out of Mary Magdalene!" The conversation was went not pursued.

A rumor is circulating in Germany that in case of a war there, General McClellan, who at present sojourns at Dresden, will be appointed Commander in chief of the Saxon army. Good bye Saxon army! good bye! You have done us no harm, and we wish you no ill.

While pulling down a house to clear the site for the new Hotel Dieu in Paris the workmen discovered an immense oak beam from an inscription on which was gathered the fact that the tree whence it was cut was planted in the forest of Roway, sometime between the years 815 and 81[illegible]

Fenian Examination in Montreal.—In Montreal a Fenian named John Fadene, who had been caught in Canada, was arraigned in court on a charge of being a spy. What follows is thus told by the Gazette:

The Court—What is your age?
Prisoner—Thirty-six.
Court—What countryman are you?
Prisoner—I was born in Ireland.
Court—What part?
Prisoner—County Clare, sir.
Court—Where there?
Prisoner—The town of Tullon.
Court—Tell us, you appear to be a man of education, how do you spell the name?
Prisoner—T-u-l-l-o-y.
Court and a number of voices—That can't be it.
Prisoner (scratching his head)—T-u-l-l-o-r.
Court—That will do.

A spectator then suggested the proper way of spelling it.

Court—Where did you get your education?
Prisoner—In Ireland, sir. I once went to three schools, and went to nine schools in another place subsequently. [Great laughter]
Court—What is your religion?
Prisoner—Well, a Baptist, sir. [Amid cries in court, "You don't look like it!"]
Court (producing Roman Catholic Rosary and a copy of a Fenian newspaper taken from the prisoner on his arrest)—You say you are a Baptist, how do you account for these?
Prisoner—Oh—yes—well—I mean a kind of Baptist Catholic. I am a kind of Presbyterian of all kinds, in fact, don't much know the difference. [Great laughter]
Court—Are you a married man?
Prisoner—No, I am for myself.
Court—You say you came from the United States—what part?
Prisoner—Massachusetts, sir.
Court—What brought you here?
Prisoner (stammeringly)—I came to get work, I was sent by some——
Court—Well, go on. You was sent by whom? You may as well tell all, at least to give a clear statement of your antecedents, and it will be better for you.
Prisoner—Well, I'll tell the truth, I work at a garden, dig potatoes, or anything.
Court—That's not the answer, who sent you here?
Prisoner—Some gentlemen, sir.
Court—What did they tell you to do?
Prisoner (disconcerted)—They told me to—well to get a living the best way I could. [Laughter]
Court—Do you know Gen. Sweeny?
Prisoner—Well, yes, Mr. McSweeny, yes!
Court—Did the Fenians in Massachusetts send you here?
Prisoner—Well, I can't say but they did. To tell the truth, they took me and said I must go to Canada.
Court—And do what?
Prisoner—They said I was to look around—and—and they would be after.

Further colloquy of this sort continued, the court being unable to elicit any direct evidence to implicate the prisoner, when he was finally committed for two months as a vagrant, and removed, to be brought up from time to time as evidence might offer, amid the jeers and execrations of the spectators, who were present in large numbers.

Assay Offices and Mints.—A late Washington letter to the Bulletin contains the following:

The passage by the House of the bill providing for an assay office at Boise City, Idaho, substituting for the proposed Mint at Dalles City, Oregon, an assay office at Portland, and discontinuing the Branch Mints at Charlotte, N. C., and Dahlonega, Georgia, is looked upon as settling the future general policy of the Government in favor of one Mint at Philadelphia and another in San Francisco, with no branches elsewhere, but an assay office wherever it seems to be required. Probably, however, the Branch Mints at Carson City and New Orleans may be retained, but none will be established in Idaho or Montana Territories, and an assay office will probably be substituted for the Branch Mint at Denver City already authorized.

National Union Convention.—Those glorious patriots, Saulsbury, McDougall, Guthrie, R. Garret, Ben Wood, Claggett, Clymer, Pendleton, Pugh, and Vallandigham, all favor, and, indeed, have signed a call for a National Union Convention to be held at Philadelphia. When we find that co-operating with these worthies are the most notorious and doubly dyed traitors in the land, we are at no loss to determine what the character and purpose of this Convention will be. Indeed, if we travel back to the day of the Chicago Convention, we may then find the spirit that will doubtless animate the coming gathering at Philadelphia. McClellanism will be revived and Johnson will be glorified. The Radicals will be fiercely denounced, and Jeff Davis placed among the political saints.—Placerville Courier.

The Washington correspondent of the London Times, describing the prayers of the Chaplain of the United States House of Representatives, says: "Sometimes he startles his hearers by some such passage as this, which he delivered in a prayer a few weeks ago: 'O, Lord, Thou hast governed the world some six thousand years, and we believe Thou hast governed it well.'" Thus the approbation of Congress was given to the government of the universe in a way that must have been very soothing to the pride of all true American people.

HOSTETTER'S

CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

READ AND REFLECT.

Make sure of Health. "But how?" you ask;
We answer, "'tis an easy task;
Strengthen the Stomach and sustain
The Nerves, the servants of the brain;
The Liver keep in active play
And regulate from day to day
Each organ aid on Nature's plan,
Brace and refresh the inner man
And like a watch that's kept in chime
By constant care, with railroad time
The system's tone and strength renew
And thereby check the perils too
"How," you inquire, "can this be done?
This victory over Disease be won?"
"Hostetter's Bitters," we reply,
Is Health's supreme protection. Try.

As a means of regenerating the disordered and enfeebled system, regulating every function of the internal organs, reviving the depressed spirits, invigorating the constitution, and prolonging life, no medicinal preparation either of the past or the present time, has been so completely and universally successful as

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

Against the vapors foul prepare,
That fever taint the heavy air
Drink not unmixed the water found
In prairies, swales, or marshy ground
If sedentary toil you ply,
A store (?) you must care (?) to die
For when debarred from exercise
For artificial aids she cries
Medicine's grand purpose and intent
Is threatened evil to prevent
And if you the effects [illegible]
From ills that crush the energies [illegible]
Hostetter's Bitters [illegible]
They are the surest antidote

To set at defiance the miasma of unhealthy soils, the poison of unwholesome water, the effluvia of crowded work rooms and factories, and the baneful influence of sedentary employments, it is only necessary to be fore-armed with

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

Dyspepsia's pangs, that rack and grind
The body and depress the mind
Ague, that as they go and come
Make life a constant martyrdom,
Colics and dysenteric pains
'Neath which the strong man's vigor wanes,
Bill our complaints those bodies fill,
Never conquered yet by drastic pills;
Dread diarrhoea that can't be
Cured by destructive mercury;
Slow constitutional decay
That brings Death nearer day by day;
Nervous prostration, mental gloom—
Heralds of madness or the tomb;
For these, through mineral strains fall—
Means of Relief at least no balm
Hostetter's Bitters, medicine sure
No longer relief, alone, but cure.

In dyspepsia, fever and ague, bilious complaints, constitutional and nervous debility, constipation, sick headaches, spasms, and in all complaints of Men or Women, proceeding from casual or inherent weakness of the body, the one great remedy and restorative is

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

To wanderers on sea or land
From Polar shore to Tropic strand;
To households him, in regions new,
And dwellers in great cities, too;
To soldiers in camp, fort and field
Who need against disease a shield;
To miners, California bound
And tillers of wet marshy ground,
To feeble wives of fragile mould,
To young and middle aged, and old
To those in health, who would enjoy
Heaven's best gifts without alloy;
To all the strengthless, weak and pale,
Who droop, yet know not what they ail,
Hostetter's Bitters we present
As Health's most potent element.

If there is any value in public opinion, or any weight in medical testimony, the very best and safest Tonic Corrective and Alterative now before the world is

ALLEN'S

LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD, heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION! IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it if only taken in time.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.

Sheriff's Sale

BY virtue of two executions to me directed issued out of the Circuit Court of Multnomah county, in favor of Kent and Marsh and John C. Carson and Robert Porter, plaintiffs, and against Moses Hurl, defendant, I have this 9th day of July, A. D. 1866, levied on the following described real estate of the said Moses Hurl in Multnomah county and State of Oregon, to wit: and described as Blocks No. 86 and 87 in the town of East Portland, and on Tuesday the 7th day of August, 1866, between the hours of 9 o'clock A. M. and 4 o'clock P. M. I will expose the same to sale at public auction in front of the Court House door in Multnomah county, and will sell so much thereof as will satisfy the above executions and costs, amounting to the sum of one hundred dollars in gold coin, and the further sum of sixty three and twenty seven one hundredth dollars in currency, with accruing costs.

Prices Greatly Reduced

LEFFEL'S

American Double Turbine Water Wheel

IS NOW MANUFACTURED BY THE OREGON IRON Works, in the city of Portland, and orders for the same can be filled immediately. We have a small supply of the different sizes, from 10 inches to 48 inches in diameter. That we may know the proper sized wheel you require, measure your water in the following way: Take the width of the stream, the average depth, and the distance it flows in a minute.

All the wheels now in use give universal satisfaction. Both the construction of the wheel and its performance commend it to the better judgment of all minds capable of appreciating the highest development of mechanical construction. Therefore it has conquered the most violent opposition.

This wheel is especially adapted to mining purposes. It is light, and can be easily packed into the mountains. Wheels weighing from 100 to 300 pounds will yield from 10 to 40 horse power, under a head of 25 or 30 feet. They are the cheapest wheel to set up known, as they are so arranged as to produce the greatest power possible from the water used.

The prices of these wheels have now been reduced to the ability of all. Come and see them or send for a circular to LEFFEL & MYERS,

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,

617 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, Scrofula Diseases (of long standing) and Ulcerated Legs, successfully treated.

Horrible Disease.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgence, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies—see that they are cured for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of these charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Doctor Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 617 Kearney street, near Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 252.

making less than two-fifths of the rent that said Mayer was to pay. He had secured the even were he now to comply with his contract, and pay in Coin, would be getting the best bargain in the city. I make this statement to show the public what kind of a man he must be to

PROCLAMATION

By the Governor of Oregon.

WHEREAS it is provided by law that the Governor of the State of Oregon shall proclaim the result of the election of the State officers, and it appearing upon the canvass of the votes given for State officers at the election held in said State on the 4th day of June, A. D. 1866 that Samuel E. May, Edwin N. Cooke, P. P. Prim, Rufus Mallory, James B. Neil, James F. Watson, P. C. Sullivan, M. F. Mulkey, James H. Slater and W. A. McPherson received the highest number of votes.

Be it therefore declared and proclaimed that Samuel E. May is elected Secretary of State, Edwin N. Cooke, Treasurer of State; P. P. Prim, Justice of the Supreme Court; Rufus Mallory, Representative to the Fortieth Congress of the United States; James B. Neil, Attorney for the First Judicial District, James F. Watson, Attorney for the Second Judicial District; P. C. Sullivan, Attorney for the Third Judicial District; M. F. Mulkey, Attorney for the Fourth Judicial District; James H. Slater, Attorney for the Fifth Judicial District and W. A. McPherson, State Printer.

[L.S.] In testimony whereof I have caused the seal of the State of Oregon to be hereunto affixed at the City of Salem, this 5th day of July, A. D. 1866.
